End of preschool

The summer holidays are just around the corner. This means that the preschool will be closed for 6 weeks, just like education. We wish all toddlers a happy holiday. For toddlers going to primary school after the summer holidays, good luck at primary school.

The toddlers' preschool will start again on Monday, August 26.

Education

International celebration

Wednesday, 26 June, was the day of our International party. We had beautiful weather and the party was well attended. First of all, the Anglia certificates were handed out to the children of grade 8. The flea market was nice and busy and many items were sold. Many children and parents had made tasty snacks for our restaurant and, as always, this went well. There were beautiful, cheerful performances (singing and dancing) by children and parents, and at the stands everyone could get information about different countries and cultures. The oldest kindergarteners and the children of group 4 were also able to show their school gardens to their parents/carers. Unfortunately, we had some bad luck this year with the heavy rain and many snails. Not everything grew well because of too much rain and too little sun, and what did grow was eaten by snails. But that did not spoil the fun. The children enjoyed gardening and proudly showed off their gardens. All in all, it was a successful day. A nice amount of money was raised. After deducting all expenses, 1500,- remains. This amount is earmarked for the working weeks of group 7 and 8. Everyone who helped, attended, contributed..... Thank you!

The school garden

As every year, the children of group 2, led by the children of group 8 and the children of group 4 have been gardening in their school garden next to the school every week. Peter the gardener (as the children call him) provided seeds, beans, lettuce, endive, etc. to plant every week. He told the children how to sow and plant these, helped the children and kept the gardens tidy in between. As this is a big job, Peter was helped by two parents. They too were on hand every week. Unfortunately, the snails especially liked the lettuce and endive, which were eaten rather quickly in many gardens. Also, not everything grew well because of the many rain showers and little sunlight. Nevertheless, the children enjoyed going to the school garden every time. On behalf of us all, we would like to thank our gardener Peter and the two helping parents for their efforts over the past period.

School leavers

Another school year has already passed and grade 8 ended the year with an amazing musical: 'The scariest escape ever'. The 37 school leavers first performed for a few groups and grandparents and later in front of their parents. The final performance was a great success. We are going to miss these lovely children (many were here for 10 years) and we wish them every success and enjoyment at their new school. Come back again to tell us how you are doing.

Farewell

This year too, we are unfortunately going to say goodbye to a number of colleagues.

Mr Edilberto has been working temporarily as a teaching assistant with the kindergartners. He replaced Ms Petra during her illness. Next school year, Mr Edilberto has found work at another school. There he will also work as a teacher in the kindergarten classes, give music lessons to all groups and work as a teaching assistant. We are going to miss Mr Edilberto, but we wish him all the best in his new job.

Our teaching assistant Floor has also found another job. She already said goodbye last week. Of course, we also wish her lots of fun and success in her new job.

Finally, we also say goodbye to José. She does the administration, but works at several schools. She is unfortunately going to leave us, so her job will be a little quieter.

We also wish José success at the rest of her schools.

Gym shoes

As you know, the kindergarteners gym shoes have recently been given home. Please provide good fitting sneakers with Velcro after the summer holidays, so that we can start PE again in the new school year. Please remember to put your child's name on them, so that we can keep and recognise them at school.
